Spring 2014 Semester
January 20 – May 8

PIKES PEAK
COMMUNITY COLLEGE

KEY: M = Monday T = Tuesday W = Wednesday
R = Thursday

The English Language Institute (ELI)

is located at the Centennial campus of Pikes Peak Community College (PPCC), 5765 S. Academy Boulevard, Room F-200. The ELI has English classes for those non-native speakers of English who:

- are planning to go to an American college or university.
- need to improve their English skills for the workplace.
- are interested in improving their ability to read, write, and speak English.

The ELI has three levels of study: BASIC, INTERMEDIATE, and ADVANCED. You must take an ESL Placement Test to see which level is best for you.

Steps for Registering for ELI Classes

Step 1

Complete a PPCC Application for Admission.

You can do this at Enrollment Services, Room A-107, Centennial Campus or complete the application online at www.ppec.edu. Click on Apply Online.

Step 2

Take the ESL Placement Test. You can take the test in one of the Testing Centers at:

Centennial Campus: Room A-117
Downtown Studio Campus: Room DT-S102
Rampart Range Campus: Room S-101

Be sure to ask for the ESL placement test and then bring your printed results to the ELI office (Centennial Campus, Room F-200) to make an appointment with an advisor.

Step 3

Register for Classes. In the ELI office, Centennial Campus, Room F-200, an advisor will help you choose the best classes for your level.

Tuition for ELI Classes

Resident rate (per credit hour) $119.50
Non-resident rate (per credit hour) $490.30

ELI classes are between 3 and 5 credits each.

In addition, students pay a course fee of $6.45 per credit.

 Payment or payment arrangements should be made with the Cashier's Office (Room A-101) immediately after registration to avoid being dropped from your classes.

NOTE: Tuition and fees are subject to change with governing board approval.

Please ask about current tuition rates when you register for classes.

All students will be billed a non-refundable registration fee of $12.25 at the time of registration.

Resident/Non-Resident Tuition

Resident students are students with permanent resident alien cards or U.S. citizens who have lived in Colorado for at least one year. (Colorado Driver's License or Colorado State I.D. card are usually used as proof of Colorado residence.) Active military/spouse – please ask for details at the ELI Office.

Non-resident students are students with tourist, visitor, and other visas or other students who have not lived in Colorado for at least one year. Please call 502-3000 for more information.

Student Activity Fees

All students must pay a student activity fee of $8.79 per credit hour in addition to the tuition prices listed.

Your fees provide you with free parking, participation in student activities, a student identification card, and other benefits.

Financial Aid

If you are a citizen, resident alien, or refugee, you may be eligible for financial aid. Call the Financial Aid Office on the Centennial Campus for more information at 502-3000, or check www.ppec.edu/paying-for-college/financial-aid-information.

Students applying for financial aid should register no later than December 20 for spring semester.

Books for Classes

You may buy your textbooks at the PPCC Bookstore on the Centennial Campus, C-102 or order them online at www.ppecbookstore.com. It is recommended that you have your books before you attend the first class meeting.

International Students

International students who have visas must meet with an ELI Advisor before they can register. Please call to make an appointment to come to the ELI office. You can also visit our website at www.ppec.edu/international-students/.

Now Registering

*Please register as soon as possible
to get the schedule you want.
No registrations will be accepted after
January 17 for spring semester.*

Please call 502-3535 for more information or to make an appointment with an advisor.
